Every economy requires proper management, and as a result, the demand for economists is likely to increase daily. These are the words of Fiji National University (FNU) graduate, Rachna Shayal Datt.

Datt graduated last week with a Bachelor of Commerce in Economics and Finance from the College of Business, Hospitality, and Tourism Studies (CBHTS).

She was also the recipient of the T K Jayaraman and Family Annual Prize for Topper in Bachelor of Commerce (Economics).

Datt, from Saru Back Road in Lautoka, is a former scholar of Natabua High School.

“I am extremely proud of myself for graduating with a Bachelor of Commerce degree, majoring in Economics and Finance. It brings me great joy to see my parents happy and proud of my achievements. I am also thrilled being the recipient of the T K Jayaraman and Family Annual Prize for Topper. The recognition means a lot to me and my family,” she said.
